KELTEK TRUST

Conservation by Re-use

Helping churches acquire surplus and/or redundant bells to be hung for English-style full-circle bell-ringing.

Bollington, Cheshire, St John the Baptist

The ring of eight bells and bell-frame was removed from the former church of St John during January 2011. The Chester Diocese Board of Finance offered them to St James, Stockton Heath within the same Diocese, where they have now been installed. The Trust covered the cost of removal by an interest-free loan and contributed towards removal & installation costs.
